ion of section is which Mr. Fultz laims we have violated. Section 18 rovides that when a player is sent room a major learge to a minor league hib he shall first be offered to Class and he shall arst be offered to Class A for a stipulated price, and if he is of wanted there to Class A. It has been my contention that this section of apply to drafted players, and have a letter from Mr. Fultz under the of January 26, in which he says has section 18 shall not apply to draft-

AT CLOSE OF SEASON uggested to Mr. Pultz that this be taken up by a committee from a side and threshed out, and an eable arreement reached. Then, a the baseball season is over, if it he desire of the majority of parties comed that the Cincinnati agreet be so amended as to include draft-dayers in a tion 18. I will be one he first ones to vote for it. We present, with the rules to which Fultz and the fraternity have seed, the commission cannot see its clear to award this player to any be taken up by a committee from to award this player to any

MRS. HORTENSE ROPP

Prohibition Address is Delivered in Open Air to Large Audience.

Will Speak in Other Parks.

Setting forth a strong plea for the wife and the mother, the children and the man who is weak, Mrs. Hortense Ropp, of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, last night addressed a large crowd in Monroe Park, and was frequently applauded. She asked the voters who were present to cast their ballot on September 22 in favor of State-wide prohibition, saying that it would be in accord with the wishes of the King of kings. There were several hundred men, women and children present, and some of them joined in the singing which preceded and followed the address.

After being introduced by Dr. Wilson, Mrs. Ropp ascended a platform improvised from a large goods box, and for more than a hour spoke to the throng. She began with prayer, fol-

Improvised from a large goods box, and for more than a hour spoke to the throng. She began with prayer, following with the recital of verses appropriate to the occasion and the theme, and then launched into her chief argument for prohibition, speaking mainly from the standpoint of the woman who suffers most from the traffic.

She prophesied that the State would go dry, and said that afterwards effort would be made to make the nation dry, and then to make all the world dry.

The exercises were closed with the taking up of a collection and with prayer. It was announced that there would be another mass-meeting on Friday night in Washington Square and a meeting to-morrow night in Jefferson Park.
